

Route directions

Take the entrance to Amsterdam Forest (Amsterdamse Bos) from the Amstelveenseweg at the Nijenrodeweg. You follow the road to the left, the Bosbaanweg, and you drive along the Bosbaan (a long rectangular rowing lake on your right hand side). At the end of the rowing lake, follow the road with a turn to the left, onto the Nieuwe Meerlaan. At the first asphalt road that crosses the Nieuwe Meerlaan, you will see a field on your left hand side (on the other side of the water); here you will see two yurts (Mongolian / Kirchian tents); this is the field of life / love / death; and there is the birth space and also the presentation space.

If you arrive by car as a visitor you can park at the Berkenhoek parking lot, located on the right hand side of the Meerlaan just past the road leading to the field. If you come for a birth please phone us so that we can greet you and direct you to the field.
